ABOUT ME

Enthusiastic 3rd-year CSE student with strong leadership, teamwork, and organizational skills. Passionate about cultural activities and event planning, aiming to contribute innovative ideas and efficient management. Adept at organizing, promoting, and executing programs with creativity and effective planning.

WORK EXPERIENCE

NSS Volunteer (Events Co-head)

- Engaged in team coordination and ensured smooth execution of programs during large-scale departmental and cultural activities.
- Served as Co-Head for an NSS event, overseeing end-to-end execution and ensuring seamless coordination among volunteers and participants.
- Organized House of Laws, managing event logistics, coordinating with participants, and facilitating a collaborative environment to promote awareness of legal and civic issues.

REEF Club

- Actively contributed to the planning and organization of diverse club events and student-led activities, playing a key role in shaping engaging and impactful experiences for the campus community.
- Embraced teamwork and innovation to bring fresh ideas to life, motivating fellow students and creating memorable moments that strengthened community spirit.

Cultural Exchange Program

- Participated in a cultural immersion program, staying with a host student in another city for 3 days and reciprocating the exchange.
- Developed adaptability, cross-cultural communication, and interpersonal skills by engaging with a new environment and community. Experience contributed to developing confidence in handling diverse groups and coordinating activities.
